SRI P.F. RODRIGUES: Sir, while replying to my question (b)' it has been stated here that the order have been issued declaring the probationery period in respect of the 12-Class -II probationers from 1978. May I know, what was the period of probation and when the orders have been passed confiring them?

SMT. NAGAMMA C. KESHAVAMURTHY. —The orders have been passed in November, 1981. There was delay in passing the orders due to non-receipt of the confidential reports and other details regarding the passing of their departmental examinination. There was quite a long delay in decairing their probationery period.

SRI P.F. RODRIGUES.—I would like to know, whether these 12 Class-II officers are entitled for increments and emoluments on the day when their probationery period ended or from the date of passing orders declaring their probationery? I want categorical answer from the Hon. Minister.

SMT. NAGAMMA C. KESHAVAMURHY.—Their emoluments and increments in no way suffer due to delay in passing orders declaring their probationery period.

SRI P. F. RODRIGUES —There is delay of three years in passing orders. I want to know exactly the date.

SMT. NAGAMMA G. KESHAVAMURHY.—I do not have the details. I will certainly inform the hon. Member about this.
